B. Are you actively trusting God for the outcome?

- 1. Do you have peace or anxiety?
- 2. Do you have an anticipation that God is doing something?
- 3. Are you "exhibiting/feeling" the Fruit of the Spirit (Gal 5)?
- 4. Compare yourself to passages like Matthew chapters 5-7; 1 Corinthians 13; Galatians 5:16-26
- 5. Romans 8:28 connects those who "love God" with the "working all things together", are you really "loving God" by the definition in John 14:21?

C. How does the description of Biblical faith differ or compare with how you have understood the topic?

Praverfully meditate on what "works" God might have prepared for you? How might more focus on what scriptures say about how to think about people, on how to treat people, about personal character growth (Galatians 5) affect how the people in your life respond to you?

Can you help people by encouraging them to Biblical obedience? Help to forgive? Help them to view people as God instructs? Encourage by reminding of our eternal hope?

Has your faith been tested? Describe how that feels.... Knowing what you do of Bible teaching, what or who might be behind that feeling/testing? Look up a couple scriptures. What did you do? How did you recover your faith?
