STUDY & DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. If David's perspective of PSALM 14 was limited, does that mean David was wrong? Explain and defend your answer.

2. The Bible says there is no one who does good

(PSALM 14:1,3; 53:1,3; ROMANS 3:12).

Yet, all of us know people who do good things—like, for example, a mother caring for her children. What does the Bible mean by this statement? Explain and defend your answer.

3. In what sense is the Gospel incomplete without the bad news?

4. What is meant by the adage:

The New is in the Old contained; the Old is in the New explained?

5. What did Pastor Keith mean by the comment,

I contend that there are no natural fools?
