Because VBS is going on this week, Wednesday's Dig Deeper Bible Study will be cancelled this week. You are encouraged to work through these study questions on your own, and perhaps get together in your home with a few others to discuss your answers.

STUDY QUESTIONS

1. The opening verses of PSALM 66 indicate that the material creation is involved in praising the Lord. Explain how this might be and give several examples.

2. In PSALM 66:5-7, the Psalmist speaks to "the nations" calling on them to take note of what the Lord has done for His people. Suggest several ways Christians today might call unbelievers to take note of what the Lord has done for His people. Defend your answer.

3. Pastor Keith said "the Psalmist's faith is not a private faith." What does that mean, and how does that apply to us today?
